

POSEIDON (NEPTUNE)

Words by: Erin Adair Music by: Bill Chase

Up from the sea with a thunderous wave
Gathering clouds and calling forth storms
Riding in a golden chariot
Comes the god of the ocean deep

With a yell he shakes the earth
Parts the mountains with a mighty girth
Sends them rolling into the sea
The birth of islands comes to be

He tames the waves as he rides by
While monsters of the deep play 'round him
For it's the master they see
They know his name as Poseidon

With his trident he rules his world
Fighting those who dared him
Casting out forgotten sins.
Not as strong as the great god Zeus
He had to prove his power
So he made the horse with a mighty blow
But in his palace he's still the king
Known to all Neptune, master of the sea

To Gary
Meeting a guy like you make my 25 years
Really mean something
Keep it up B.B. King

APHRODITE (VENUS)

Words by: Erin Adair Music by: Bill Chase

Alone she arose foam born on the sea
An idol of beauty for mortals to see
She rode on a shell this goddess of love
Naked and warmed by the gods from above
Sea kissed maiden bore on the wind
Carries you across a laughing sea

Love temptress soul blinding lady
Weaving your path through the hearts of men
It's what makes them lie and cheat
Their minds are lost but their bodies complete

Love temptress soul blinding lady
Weaving your path through the hearts of men
Their minds are lost but their bodies complete
Your love will be sought forever
While cupid slings his arrows
Pointed at the id of man
Giving up his heart
Giving up his mind
Giving up his soul
Giving up his life

HADES (PLUTO)

Words by: Erin Adair Music by: Bill Chase

Cross the river to me, but pay your price
To the boatman pay an obolus twice
Else he'll leave you there to wander and roam
On the shores of hell all alone
Accept your fate

A three headed dog keeps my home for me
With a mournful cry and a laughing hate
He'll let you in but you can't escape
You're mine now, so relax
Accept your fate

My house is filled with the blood of sheep
Earthly treasures while here you'll keep
From room to room are the shades of dead
Woe and misery are what you're fed
Accept your fate

Have you met my wife Persephone?
Who I raped and I brought here with me?
Together we'll rule the souls of the dead
The life you lived is a shadowy light
But does it really matter in eternal night?
Have you heard the evil things about me?
Do you think they're true? Come here and see
You'll get what you deserve
You'll have to pay the price
You'll get what you deserve
You bet it won't be nice
You've gone to hell
The gates are closed
The gates are closed now
I put my staff to rest!
